and Mr. William A. Pyles at the Methodist Episcopal Church in Anacostia last evening was an interesting event which was attended by an audience of relatives and friends that taxed the capacity of the church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Georgia V. Granger, Adams street, Anacostia, and the groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Pyles of the same place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles O. Isaac, pastor of Anacostia Church. The ushers were Mr. Vernon McNelly of Washington and Mr. Frank McLean, Mr. Maurice Haines and Mr. Joseph King of Anacostia. Miss Cora McLean presided at the organ. The bride's dress was of white organdie over white silk, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses tied with pink ribbon. During the ceremony the organist played "Among the Lilies." The decorations about the chancel were handsome, consisting of ferns, palms and other plants. Mr. and Mrs. Pyles left immediately after the ceremony for a trip to Niagara Falls and the Thousand Isles. They will make their home in Anacostia. 828.36; satisfied by sale, $8,374.74; canceled by Supreme Court of District of Columbia, $962.88; canceled by Commissioners, District of Columbia, $195.59. Beyond all pain, beyond all care,
Beyond life's mystery,
Beyond the range of time and change,
tits home's reserved for him.
His sins and sorrows, strifes and fears,
He's bade them all farewell,
High up amid th' eternal years
With his dear Lood to dwell.
By his devoted friend,
T. M. LEIGHTNE

How could we bear this beavy cross,
The lopeliness and cruel pain,
Did we not know our earthly loss
Is God's eternal gain?
BY HER HUSBAND.
